

Obituary

Died: Saturday, March 16, 2019

Robert Garcia, 70, of Colorado Springs, passed away on Friday, March 15 after a valiant battle with cancer. Robert was born on June 8, 1948 in El Paso, Texas to Paz Garcia Lopez. After a childhood of itinerate field work, he studied accounting at San Jose State. Following 39 years at Lockheed Martin in California and Colorado, Robert was fondly known as the “finance guy.” He was also particularly proud to be a founder and the President of the Lockheed Hispanic Network. After his retirement, Robert continued his passion for accounting in private practice, and was also co-owner of Between Friends Consignment.
